Q9 - What improvements could have been made to enhance the course design and/or delivery?

Response Rate: 62.50% (5 of 8)

- I believe that the research paper could have been presented a little clearer. The research paper says that a certain thing is required, but then within the workshops as far as the requirements more information is provided concerning what is needed on the research paper. I feel that if it was ALL located on the requirements for the research paper then it would've been much better.
- Organization of due dates and where the material is located on the webpage. Often had to visit various links/areas in order to complete one section of coursework.

- More description of what a "Reaction Paper" is in addition to the rubric would be helpful, especially in preparation to write the first one of the semester. It turns out that the reaction paper is not an actual opinion-based reaction to the text read in a module.
- a bit more historical context would be helpful, since the novels jump around the globe and through different time periods, either in the lecture or just a short article in each module.
- I became confused at times regarding which assignments were due by Sunday and which ones were for the next week. As a result of this, I missed one assignment which lowered my grade. I feel that this is more my oversight and less an issue with the course.

Q13 - Is there anything else that you would like us to know about this course or instructor?

Response Rate: 62.50% (5 of 8)

- Professor McCollum is the most involved instructor I've ever had! She was great. I have never had a professor give so much feedback on every assignment. She was also available via Skype for questions whenever we needed her. The tough critiques and high standards made me a better writer. This is the professor against whom I will compare all others at SNHU. What a great way to start my grad work at SNHU!
- at first I was frustrated that expectations were much higher than in other course and it was much more difficult to earn a good grade, but she pushed me to work harder and improve the quality of my work. She put TONS of effort into providing feedback on my papers that I found extremely helpful. It was so nice to know that both myself and the instructor were putting in more effort than in other courses. the effort is greatly appreciated!!!
- The expectations of the instructor were a lot higher than expected in the rubrics. While I appreciate this, her support and additional materials that she provided, I found myself struggling to meet her expectations on top of completing the work in the course. This made the course less enjoyable.
- Professor McCollum is fantastic. She is passionate about teaching and research, and it proved infectious. I greatly appreciated her feedback on assignments and wish we could have interacted more. I hope to have her again as an instructor.
- In instructor was highly awesome. This was her first teaching class, and I felt she did a smashing job! She was always very willing to help students improve their work, and helped me out tremendously personally!
